“General Information Rules & Regulations”

As of March 19, 2002 Boulder City Council adopted Ordinance 7158. This new code section (Section 12-2-4 of the Boulder Revised Code) requires that every landlord provide each tenant with a written document disclosing specific city regulations. Ordinance No. 7158 was enacted in response to concerns that some tenants (including some students) may not be fully aware of occupancy limitations and other applicable city regulations. So as a Landlord we are obligated to provide these to you. Please read them very carefully, and then sign and return to the office.

12-2-4 Ownership of Security Deposit and Payment of Interest

Any security deposit for residential property subject to regulation under state law shall be and remain the sole property of tenant advancing same, and such security deposit plus interest shall not be retained by the person having custody of it after the termination of the tenancy except for actual cause, pursuant to the provisions of state law dealing with retention of security deposits.

Ordinance 7158

Occupancy Limits

A. The dwelling unit you will be renting or leasing at the address of 1133 Pleasant (Campus) or 1555 Broadway (Varsity), may be occupied by no more than 4 unrelated persons.

B. Under the current lease or rental agreement, the only people permitted to occupy the dwelling are those who have signed the lease.

C. City of Boulder laws permit a renter or lease holder to have a temporary house guest. However, if any guest becomes a resident of the apartment or dwelling unit, and if this produces a violation of the legal occupancy limit, a criminal prosecution can result.

D. Violations of the occupancy laws of the city of Boulder can result in criminal prosecutions and fines of up to $2,000.00 for each day in violation.

Noise Ordinances

The city of Boulder has several ordinances that regulate noise. Violations of any of these ordinances can result in criminal prosecutions. The laws include:

1. Disruptions of Quiet Enjoyment of the Home, Section 5-3-8, B.R.C. 1981. This focuses on individuals who engage in loud behavior that disrupts a neighbor who is in his or her own home.

2. Unreasonable Noise, Section 5-6-1, B.R.C. 1981. This is provision which can be used when officers standing more than 100 feet away from a noise source, hear amplified music in a residential zone after 11:00pm.

Late at night, the ambient or background noise level in most neighborhoods is approximately 35 dBA. A sound 15 decibels greater than background noise (50 dBA), such as a loud stereo, will wake the average person from a deep sleep.

A violation of any of these noise ordinances can result in criminal prosecution and a maximum fine of up to $1,000 and 90 days in jail.

Fireworks Ordinance

Fireworks, Section 5-6-6, B.R.C. 1981. Except for police, military and certain other personnel described in Boulder's Code, it is illegal for anyone to possess fireworks in any public or private place or to explode fireworks anywhere within the City of Boulder without having obtained a permit.
